What students have said about this training:

“As a mom with a child with ASD, HANDLE is exciting and fascinating. The introductory course provided me with a wealth of information and practical activities that I could implement right away. Loved it!” - A. Valencia

“This [course] has made me rethink how I teach and respond to things regarding my students’ behaviors.” - Courtney Hebert, Special Ed. Teacher

“The information has given me so much more understanding that I feel revitalized. The exercises are so simple and effective that they can very easily be incorporated into everyday home life.” - F. Milner, Parent

“One of the most powerful experiences of my life!” - Jody Rosenbalm, SLP, Seattle Schools

“The HANDLE Institute trainings are truly the cutting edge! It gave meaning to many behaviors that I see everyday but just didn’t know how to interpret. My understanding and interventions are forever changed. These trainings should be required for any mental health professional who works with ADHD, Tourette’s Syndrome, Asperger’s and learning problems.”
Mark Lanci, MSW, LICSW
